The weather has been remarkably cold for the past week, and blankets and overcoats are getting to be quite comfortable. On Sunday night we were favored with a fall of sleet which proved to us substantially that hoary old Winter had really made his appearance.

Mr. Sain advertises this week the fact that by the 20th of December next, he will have in Orangeburg, a fine lot of Virginia horses and mules which he will sell cheap. Among them will be fine saddle and draft horses, the best that have ever been in this market.

INQUEST.—On Monday last Trial Justice A. F. Browning acting Coroner held an inquest on the body of Wesley Peters, colored, found lying dead on the Kennerly Road in this Township. After hearing the evidence given, the jury found "that the deceased, Wesley Peters came to his death from exposure to the weather."

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—We learn that last week a prisoner confined in the jail here attempted to escape by assaulting the keeper, he was unsuccessful however, owing to the vigilance of the keeper and to the assistance at hand, though he succeeded in inflicting upon the keeper several severe injuries. We hear he has been more securely confined since.

We would call attention to the advertisement of Mr. C. D. Kortjohn, who has opened a grocery store at the stand formerly occupied by Mr. H. Funderburk, he has a large and fine stock of groceries, and sells cheap. He is affable to everybody and intends to try and oblige any who may call upon him. Give him a call, and you will testify to the freshness and fineness of his stock.

We hear that Mr. J. Wallace Cannon late of Mr. Ezekiel, has opened a grocery and liquor store, at the stand formerly occupied by Mr. Harville, if this is the fact we commend Mr. Cannon to the favorable notice of our citizens who will find him a courteous, polite, obliging and genial young gentleman, who by his urbane and pleasant manners will certainly afford to every one complete satisfaction.

THE HORSE MALARIA.—At last this disease has reached our Town, and it seems as if it intends to do considerable damage. We are informed that both at Mr. Moroney's and Mr. Sain's stables all of the horses are affected. The symptoms are similar to those described in the newspapers all along, and the remedies used are said to be very good, we also hear that the disease is spreading out in the country, and that several horses and mules some seven miles distant on the Caw Caw Swamp road have the disease. Our citizens would do well to use all the remedies possible, as the disease is said to be at some times fatal. We append two recipes said to be most efficacious.

R LOTION FOR HORSES.
4 oz. Spirits of Hartshorn.
2 oz. Tincture of Arnica.
4 1/2 pints Oil of Hemlock.
1 1/2 pints Alcohol.
Bathe neck and under jaws.
Also, ten (10) drops of aconite on tongue three times a day.
The other is the course pursued in some of the stables containing valuable trotting stock.
Bandage the limbs and soak bandages with spirits. Rub the throat with turpentine. Mix a small portion of ipecac and tartar emetic with molasses: put a few drops on the tongue every half hour.

A TRIAL OF 50 YEARS.
The New York Observer has passed through the ordeal, and starts out anew on the second fifty years with a larger list of readers and more numerous friends than ever. Such a steady course of prosperity is unexampled, and inspires confidence. We heartily rejoice in the great success of a paper which has always advocated those sound principles that underlie the foundation of society and good government. Orthodox in the truest sense, both in Church and State, its influence is always good. We see its publisher proposes to give every subscriber for 1872 an appropriately embellished Jubilee Year-Book. Those who subscribe will have no cause to regret the step. $3 a year. Sidney E. Morse & Co., 37 Park Row, New York.

A New York editor thinks from the manner in which shirts are made in that city there ought to be an inspection of sewing. He says he went to the expense of a new shirt the other day and found himself when he awoke in the morning crawling out between two of the shortest stitches.

The servants of a Prussian officer one day met a cory, who inquired how he got along with his fiery master. "O, excellently," answered the servant; "we live on very friendly terms—every morning we beat each other's coats, he takes his coat off to be beaten, and I keep mine on."

A preparation so widely and favorably known as Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, needs few words of praise from us. This compound has won its way to the highest favor in the public mind; and multitudes, who have vainly used other remedies for the restoration of their hair, have, on trying the Sicilian Renewer, been made glad by the speedy restoration of their gray hair to its natural color, and the thin locks thickened up as in the days of early youth. It also prevents the hair falling out, makes it soft and glossy, and is altogether the best preparation for its intended purposes before the public.

Public Sale.
P. F. Jennings, Adm'r of Est. of Jno. T. Jennings, vs
P. S. Felder and others, Creditors and Heirs of J. T. Jennings.
Under an order in the Common Pleas in this case, there will be sold at Walterboro, by the Sheriff of Colleton, on the first Monday in December next, for one-half (1/2) cash, the other half to be at the option of the purchaser also cash or a credit of one year, secured by bond and mortgage executed to the Referee in this case; the bonds with interest from date. Purchasers paying for Papers and Recording.
I. That large body of timbered land in Colleton County, being all the land of which J. T. Jennings, died seized in that County, containing as is supposed about twenty-five thousand acres. These lands include a good deal of well timbered, as well as farming land, and great facilities for market by the Edisto River. There is a Dwelling and other buildings on the land.
II. On the same day and at the same place for cash four (4) Steam Saw Mills in good running order.
III. On the same day at Orangeburg by the Sheriff of that County, and the terms prescribed for the Colleton Land, a tract of twenty five hundred (2500) acres, lying on the Junction of the North and South Edisto, and bounded by them at the south, north by lands of M. Murphy, David Murphy and Mrs. Ashe, east by J. T. Shomaker and H. Jennings, and west by E. Smoke and Jno. Easterlin.
On the place there is a Large and Handsome Dwelling House and all the outbuildings usual on well settled plantation—the lands first class Cotton and Provision land. The tract will be sold in parcels.
A Dwelling and Outhouses on each.
1. The Homestead, with the Luther Myers and Izlar tract.
2. The tract on which Jno. Murphy is living to include the Myers sawmill tract.
3. The tract on which Jacob Murphy lives.
4. The Andrew Wolfe place.
5. The Lynch place.
6. The Barney Dempsey place.
7. The "Thomas" place on which Wm. Welling lives.
8. The Mary Murphy place.
2. Another tract of two hundred (200) acres of good Farming Land in the same neighborhood, bounded by lands of J. D. Cleckley, S. Dibble, Jno. Easterlin and Geo. Kittrell. MORTIMER GLOVER, Nov. 7, 1872—9d Referee.

THE KU KLUX.
Raid through our quiet village sometime ago, did not engender as much
EXCITEMENT
As did the Intelligence that Mr. HERMAN WAHLERS DESIGNED opening a FIRST CLASS DRINKING SALOON
IN OUR MIDST.
And when
THE FACT
WAS REALIZED,
The confusion of the people was almost equivalent to
THAT
Caused to the builders of the tower of Babel when their language was confused.
SODA, GIN, WHISKEY, AND
BRANDY COCKTAILS,
Such as we had never seen before—WINES, CHAMPAGNES, and SEGARS the like of which were as rare as a white crow, or ice in June. ALE and LAGER, that would make the meanest man in the world fat, are only a part of MR. WAHLERS COLLECTION that Caused so much Fright to us all. To this Day
There are men whose
LIFE IS IN A DOUBTFUL CONDITION.
This was caused by his manifeste, requesting
LOAFERS
To keep away on pain of a heavy
PENALTY.
To this day there are others who had lost their power to be genial—whose nerves were rendered unsteady by the use of bad liquors, and whose countenances bore a downcast sheepish look—to this day the advertiser says there are men like these, who have been happy, infinitely so since, inhibiting once at MR. W'S SALOON. There fore the exhortation.
COME ALL YE
That thirst for healthy beverages, the depressed, the aged—and the poisoned
AND RECEIVE THE BALM
That can only be had at the ENTERPRISE SALOON.
You'll Find No
LOAFERS, NO HANGERS
AROUND, NO
Men whose eyes are redened with
MIXTURES OF STRYCHNINE & CREOSOTE,
You'll find a genial healthy set of TEMPERANCE LOOKING MEN, and the greatest desire on the part of the PROPRIETOR is to please the wants of his customers.
Give me a trial at the STAND formerly occupied by JOHN PATTERSON, dec'd opposite Messrs Bull Sevel and Pike.

Sheriff's Sales.
By virtue of sundry Executions to me directed I will sell to the highest bidders, at Orangeburg Court House, on the first MONDAY in December next, for cash, the following property, viz:
One tract of land containing 188 acres more or less, bounded north by Mary Stokes, west by S. T. Izlar, south by M. W. Hughes, and east by J. W. Antley in Edisto County.
One other tract containing 290 acres more or less, in Edisto County, bounded on east by M. R. Antley, north by S. T. Izlar and T. Hughes, south by Hutchins & Thomas and J. W. Antley, and west by J. W. Antley.
Two Horses and one Mule. Levied on as the property of J. J. Antley at the suit of L. D. Mowry & Sons.
ALSO
338 acres more or less, in Orangeburg County, the balance of a tract of 872 acres, after deducting Homestead of D. D. Funchess, being a part of the place whereon he now resides.
The remainder (after the determination of the Estate in Homestead) in 500 acres, cut off from the above tract of 872 acres and assigned as Homestead to D. D. Funchess. Levied on as the property of D. D. Funchess at the suit of John W. Funchess. Sheriff's Office, H. RIGGS, Orangeburg C. H., S. C., Nov. 8, 1872. S. O. C. Nov 9 1d

Notice of Dismissal.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT I will on the 11th day of December next, file my final account with the Honorable Judge of Probate for Orangeburg County, as Administrator of Dr. Wm. A. Cooper, and ask for Letters of Dismissal.

The Baltimore Robbery
Demonstrates the oft-told tale that cheap safes, old fashioned safes, safe not up to the times, are the temptations to burglary. Bankers may provide watchmen, and may use other safeguards, but they will not put their money in the watchman's pocket, or trust in a tin or wooden box, no matter how many guards are used. The safe, after all is the last respectable. No amount of watching or guarding will ever make a poor old-style safe trustworthy. This is the citadel, and should be the best that can be made. THERE IS BUT ONE BEST.
